FINE GAEL

What is GDPR?

The General Data Protection Regulation protect the personal data of all citizens/residents of the EU and gives you more say in relation to how companies use and process your personal information and data.

As a member, what will my data be used for?

Your data is collected and used in accordance with the Party's Privacy Policy and is available for full inspection at www.finegael.ie.

The Party may contact Members using data provided in order to administer their Membership and to keep them informed about matters which are of interest to them. From time to time, the Party may contact Members to notify them of:

- Party meetings, initiatives and events
- Regional or National Conferences
- Ard Fheiseanna
- Leadership Election
- Updates on organisation matters including election campaigns
- Updates from the Party on party positioning, policy or topical matters

Data Protection Officer

The Party has a Data Protection Officer who is responsible for overseeing the Party's obligations and ensure compliance with the GDPR.

Who will my data be shared with?

The Party may occasionally share your details with Third Party Suppliers, but only to carry out a service required (i.e. processing of membership cards, printing etc.) and only with Third Party Suppliers that are GDPR compliant. Any such Third Parties will be bound by the Terms & Conditions of a Data Processing Agreement between the supplier and Head Office which ensures protection of your data in compliance with the GDPR.

Will my data be transferred outside of the EU?

No, the Party will not share your details with anyone outside of the EU.

How long can my details be kept?

We will not hold your data for longer than is necessary. We may retain your personal data for the duration of your membership with Fine Gael and for such period of time thereafter as is necessary to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

Members Hub

Members should notify the Party of any changes to your contact details to ensure your data is accurate.

You can update your contact details and preferences on our website via the Members Hub (www.finegael.ie/Members-hub) or alternatively you can contact the Membership Department in Head Office on +353 1 619 8444.

Can I withdraw my consent?

Yes, you have the option to withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us on +353 1 619 8444, or in writing to: The Data Protection Officer, Fine Gael, 51 Upper Mount Street, Dublin 2, D02 W924, or by "unsubscribing" from any online correspondence received from us.

You also have the right to have your data updated or deleted at any time.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

If we decide to change our privacy policy we will post the changes on our website www.finegael.ie. If the changes are significant, we may also choose to notify all our members with the new details. If required by law, we will get your permission or give you the opportunity to opt out of any new uses of your data.

How do I report a breach of my data or make a complaint?

You can contact the DPO in writing to: Fine Gael, 51 Upper Mount Street, Dublin 2, D02 W924 or by email to dataprotection@finegael.com.
